Thousand Oaks, CA— The Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Conejo Valley will serve as the site for a free Music & Dance Workshop on Monday, August 12 at 2 p.m. at the Marion & John E. Anderson Youth Center on the Los Cerritos Middle School campus, 1980 E. Avenida de las Flores in Thousand Oaks. The workshop is designed for kids ages 8-18.

The workshop features Ruby Chase, who has appeared in many movies and television shows in addition to being known for her animated character cartoon voices. She has performed on multiple stages and is currently recording original music for an upcoming major dance motion picture. Chase will lead the workshop which will include dancing, acting and singing opportunities.

Free online tutorials are offered on the MoreZap channels on Tryout.net, a new COPPA compliant site for kids and families. This website offers resources for classes and contests in sports, martial arts, and the performing arts. Parents can pre-register for just $1 and support the Boys & Girls Clubs, the arts and, most importantly, kids dreams by simply signing up with a credit card.

"This is a win-win," stated Michelle Zeitlin, CEO of More Zap Productions & Management. "Kids can learn and explore in a safe environment and parents can feel good about that while giving back to a trusted national organization that helps kids all year round. I am proud to be a part of this new venture with More Zap, Tryout and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Conejo Valley," she added.

For more information on the workshop, call 805-493-2917.
